Re: Remarks Before
the Seminar for
Minority Coordinators
6 October 1987

You are scheduled to speak for ten minutes on Tuesday, 6 October at 9:15 a.m. in Room 1E78 to kick-off the Seminar for Minority Coordinators. The Seminar is sponsored by our Office of Personnel to strengthen the Agency's on-campus minority recruitment efforts. You will be introduced by [redacted] Deputy Director of Personnel.

One of the 42 coordinators expected in the audience is Ms. Alfreda Brown, the Coordinator for Career Planning at Washington University in St. Louis. (See opposite for a list of the other coordinators and additional material).

For your background, the Agency's minority population comprises about ten percent of the total, broken down as follows:

Blacks - 8 1/2 percent
Hispanics - 1 1/2 percent and
Asian-American- 1/2 percent.
